Description:- Hard case battery with gold connectors, the exceptionally durable casing has a 2600mah cell (Flat cell) contained within.

We have several of these cells that are just over 1 year old. We offer them for project purposes or for those of you who require an economical 2600mah cell solution. As they are over the 1 year, although they are probably perfectly fine, we are selling them at a knockdown price. Ideal for those who know to disassemble and reuse the cells contained within. They are brand new.
